

Designated Safeguarding Officer Training Course Overview

This course provides the Designated Safeguarding Officer (DSO) in recruitment businesses (or those supporting the DSO) with the additional understanding and skills needed to respond to safeguarding concerns and safer recruitment issues raised by consultants, clients and candidates.

This is a full day training course delivered in-person or over 2-four hour sessions using Zoom Video conferencing.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Identify the Designated Safeguarding Officer's roles and responsibilities.
- Identify the roles and responsibilities of the Designated Safeguarding Officer/Lead in the organisation in which the candidate is being placed.
- Identify legislation, statutory guidance, policies, and procedures which enable the DSO to manage safeguarding and allegations within the agency and within the organisation in which the candidate is placed.
- Describe key elements of safeguarding and what the DSO's role is in reporting and responding to concerns raised by the Consultant, Candidate and Client.
- Identify effective strategies for working with allegations and complaints.
- You may also be interested Handling Allegations which acts as fantastic follow-on from this course.
